Receive a Credit for Future Office Furniture With the Assets You Have Now

If your business is temporarily downsizing its office location while most of your employees work from home, you may have the opportunity to get a credit for a future furniture purchase for your current assets.

MAC RELOCATIONS WILL:

- Provide an accurate inventory evaluation and quote for your assets
- Break down and remove your furniture and bring your space back to broom swept condition
- Give you a credit certificate for the value of your assets which will be redeemable at our sister company Office Furniture Center
- When you make your new purchase, MAC Relocations will deliver and install all your new furniture

See if you qualify today!
